Meditation from Beersheba

The world offers busy schedules and more stuff to do, but God offers rest.

The Lord is my Shepherd; I shall not be in want!

*The world offers faster cars and bigger houses,
but God offers comfort.*

The Lord is my Shepherd; I shall not be in want!

*The world offers war and terror,
but God offers protection.*

The Lord is my Shepherd; I shall not be in want!

*The world offers cheap love and cheap thrills,
but God offers goodness and mercy.*

The Lord is my Shepherd; I shall not be in want!

Come now and let us dwell in the house of the Lord!

Quotes from: "Dangling: I May Have Cancer, but Cancer Doesn't Have Me" ~ by Amy Carr
This book is listed under Nurturing Community.

~ God wants what is best for us, not what is easiest.

~ Don't look for the reasons to avoid engaging with others while going through personal trials. Look for the blessings that come with allowing others into your world despite your fear or feeling of vulnerability.

~ The blessings and freedom that come from being the truest version of you not only makes your life more livable, but inspires others to be real, too.

~ Sensitivity doesn't just happen. It's learned.

~ Patience is a fruit of the Spirit that only is developed through trials.

~ Scars cannot dictate where we're going, but they do reflect what we've overcome on our way to getting there.

~ Having your quiet time with God and drinking in the power of His Word will set your day straighter than any cup of coffee ever could.

~ The beauty of this life is not reserved for only the mountaintop experiences with which we are blessed. Remember: it is in the valley that the beautiful lillies grow!

~ We must walk in faith of what we know to be true, not in fear of what we don't know or can't control.

~ Fear, doubt, and confusion are among the most dangerous and deceptive tools Satan uses to keep us from living the abundant life that Christ died for us to live.
